

Friday, March 4, 4:30-6pm / UCSB Art Department Atrium Foundry

Beatriz Cortez + Kari Reardon

THE UCSB ARTS EQUITY COMMONS

inaugurates a three-year artists-in-residence program with a roundtable discussion featuring LA-based artists Beatriz Cortez and Kari Reardon, and UCSB Professors Alicia Boswell and Allison Caplan (History of Art & Architecture), who will discuss Indigenous methods of ancient metallurgy. The program will be hosted as a hybrid event for both in-person and remote access via Zoom.

Following the event, a tour of the Art Department's metal fabrication and foundry where the artists are working in residence through July 2022. Announcements will be forthcoming for future public viewings for the foundry casting of new works by the visiting artists.

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE

ARTS 0641

Seating is limited due to COVID protocols.

RSVP

aqc@arts.ucsb.edu

The AEC is supported by a UC Advancing Faculty Diversity Grant.

ARTS
EQUITY COMMONS