Internships Possibilities at UCSB

ART, DESIGN & ARCHITECTURE MUSEUM (ARTHI 192A-B, optional grading)

Art, Design & Architecture Museum / Architecture and Design Collection Internships
Contact: Intern Coordinator 2022-2023 Sara Morris, saramorris@ucsb.edu
AD&A Museum internships (ARTHI 192A) vary based on availability and student interest; options include internships in the Architecture and Design Collection (ARTHI 192B). Students intern for the full academic year and attend a weekly seminar; applications are accepted during spring quarter for the following year. Four units earned through these internships may be applied to the Museum Studies emphasis or minor. If taken for a letter grade the units may also be applied to the other HAA major and minor tracks. Otherwise, students receive only units.

AD&A Museum Education and Outreach Program
Contact: EOP Coordinator 2022-2023 Letícia Cobra Lima, leticiacobralima@ucsb.edu
Students applying for an AD&A Museum internship can indicate this program as one of the options to which they would like to be assigned. The Education and Outreach Program (EOP) program is dedicated to enriching the educational experience of K-12 students in the Santa Barbara area by introducing them to Art and Architectural History. Interns make presentations and guide students in classroom activities. Together with the EOP Coordinator, they curate the annual Kinder Art exhibition.

IMAGE RESOURCE CENTER (ARTHI 192C, pass/no pass grading)
Contact: IRC.info@arthistory.ucsb.edu or (805) 893-2509
An internship in the IRC aids in developing skills in visual technologies and/or object study for research and in education. The internship may be designed with a focus in one or more of these areas:

- image technology related to research in art and architectural history
- archival work with 35mm slides and potentially materials from the Architecture and Design Collection
- object study in collaboration with the AD&A Museum and COBRAL, including object storage, handling, transfer and display

To apply, send your resume, a list of related work experience and coursework, and a clear outline of your goals for an internship to: IRC.info@arthistory.ucsb.edu. Applications are due four weeks before the beginning of the quarter in which the student intends to start working.

CHEADLE CENTER FOR BIODIVERSITY & ECOLOGICAL RESTORATION (CCBER) (ARTHI 192D, pass/no pass grading)
Contact: Katja Seltmann, seltmann@ccber.ucsb.edu or (805) 893-2401
Curatorial internships are available with the UCSB Herbarium and UCSB Invertebrate Zoology Collections. The Natural History Collections Club observes and hosts events involving the various collections at the CCBER.

INTERNSHIP IN ARCHAEOLOGICAL RECORD-KEEPING AND COLLECTIONS (ANTH 178, optional grading)
Contact: Prof. Amber VanDerwarker, vanderwarker@anth.ucsb.edu
Interns serve as assistants in the department's Central Coast Information Center or Repository for Ethnographic and Archaeological Collections or both.

EXHIBITION STUDIES INTERNSHIP IN ART (ART 192ES)
Contact: Prof. Kim Yasuda, yasuda@ucsb.edu
This internship provides pedagogical and practical support for students exhibiting work within the Art Building and other venues across campus such as Cheadle Hall and the University Library. Among other skills, the course will include intensive training in exhibition scheduling and curating, installation and display, the production of didactic supplements such as information sheets, wall texts and titles, methods of promotion as well as de-installation and art handling.

LA COUNTY ARTS & CULTURE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM
Contact: internship@arts.lacounty.gov or (213) 202-5858
Summer job opportunities for college students are available through the Los Angeles County Arts Internship Program. Visit Los Angeles County Arts & Culture Internship Positions for a list organization offering internships, include location and job titles. Yearly lists of available internships are usually posted at the end of March and interested students are encouraged to apply promptly and plan on applying to at least 6-8 internships, as these internships are highly competitive and limited. Students apply directly to the organization offering the internship, not the Arts Commission. Internships begin early June. Applicants must have completed at least one semester of college before their start date and be currently enrolled in (or have just graduated from) a community college of four-year university. Applicants must be a resident of and/or attending school in Los Angeles County. Positions are for 10 weeks and pay $420 a week.
